

The Krupnick Festival of the Arts

An Initiative of the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles

Celebrating our city's cultures through music, art, dance and food

Voices of LA: The Krupnick Festival of the Arts is a citywide collaborative series bringing Jewish artists together with artmakers from diverse communities across Los Angeles to create original works featuring musicians, dancers, chefs, spoken word and visual artists.

SEPT. 14 CULMINATING FESTIVAL SCHEDULE

OUTDOOR STAGE

With MC Joshua Silverstein

11:30am-12:15pm

KLEZ/MEXKO-3 VOICES OF LA

An energetic mash-up of klezmer, mariachi and Korean music featuring Cindy Paley, Julian Sung Joo, Rufino Menjares and Adam Ramirez. Directed by Barry Fisher / Ellis Island Band.

1:00pm-1:45pm

DON KIM'S KOREAN MUSIC & DANCE

An exhilarating performance of Korean music and dance, showcasing the stunning sights and sounds of this traditional art form.

2:30pm-3:30pm

WIL-DOG OF OZOMATLI & JARELL PERRY

An eclectic musical performance pairing the sociopolitical, Jewish-inspired, salsa-pop-reggae-hip-hop sounds of Wil-Dog Abers of the Grammy-winning band Ozomatli with the new-school 'alt-R&B' rhythms of Jarell Perry.

4:15pm-5:15pm

LA SANTA CECILIA & YUVAL RON ENSEMBLE

A dynamic musical presentation combining the Middle-Eastern, Israeli sounds of Yuval Ron with the energetic and modern beats of the East LA based, Grammy-winning group La Santa Cecilia, who exemplifies the modern-day creative hybrid of Latin culture, rock and world music.

1:45pm-2:30pm

PERSIAN MUSIC & DANCE WITH MEHRDAD ARABI AND NAJVA ENSEMBLE

An enchanting presentation of classical and folkloric Persian music and dance, mixed with the contemporary style of Mehrdad Arabi and vocalist Sina Bayat.

PINNESS AUDITORIUM

12:30pm-1:30pm

ALONG THE HYPHEN

A spoken word / musical collaboration examining life along some of the many hyphens of identity in Los Angeles—Korean, Jewish, Filipina, Latina and African-American.

3:45pm-4:30pm

ATE9 DANCE COMPANY & OMID WALIZADEH

"For now" is a cutting-edge dance and musical performance blending the talent of Israeli choreographer Danielle Agami and her Ate9 Dance Company with the live, Persian electronic sounds of Omid Walizadeh.

FOOD TRUCKS & CARTS

Enjoy a delicious representation of LA's eclectic cuisine.

Don Chow Tacos, Kosher Palate, Moe Deli, Surfer Taco, Yalla, Artesana Pops, Choctál Ice Cream

VISUAL ARTS EXHIBITION

On the 2nd floor of Wilshire Boulevard Temple

Open for viewing from 11:00am-5:30pm
VERANDA: CONTEMPLATING SPACES IN BETWEEN

Co-curated by Anne Hromadka (Jewish Artists Initiative) and Hirokazu Kosaka (JACCC), this original visual arts exhibition is centered on the theme of "cultural sustainability" and brings together artists from the Los Angeles Jewish and Japanese American communities.

CULINARY STAGE

Hosted by Evan Kleiman of KCRW's Good Food.

COOKING DEMONSTRATIONS

12:15pm-1:00pm: Michele Grant of Kosher Palate Truck and TKP Provisions

3:30pm-4:15pm: Micah Wexler of Wexler's Deli

INTERACTIVE WORKSHOPS

For all ages!

ORIGAMI WORKSHOP WITH ARTIST JOEL STERN

Explore the different cultures of Los Angeles through the art of paper folding. Learn traditional Spanish, Korean, Indian, Japanese, Chinese and Jewish origami; join in a communal origami project; and create your own paper models to take home.

HAMSA WORKSHOP DEVELOPED BY ARTIST GABY TSABAG

Learn how to make your own hamsa, and see how many different cultures of Los Angeles interpret this ancient symbol of a protective hand.

Voices of LA: The Krupnick Festival of the Arts is generously funded through a grant from The Harry and Belle Krupnick Endowment Fund of the Jewish Community Foundation of Los Angeles, presented by Wilshire Boulevard Temple and produced by Community Arts Resources.
